Government Order No:- 94 Edu of 2015
D a t e d :- 07 - 03- 2015

Whereas a number of educational institutions were closed down due to unprecedented floods and heavy rain fall in September 2014, particularly in the Kashmir Division and Winter Zone of Jammu Division;

Whereas most of the schools could not be made fully functional for a long time thereafter due to damage suffered by the buildings, unsafe or unhygienic conditions and also water logging , even leading to postponement of exams from Oct/Nov 2014 to March, 2015;

Whereas winter vacations which were ordered vide Government Order No.722-Edu of 2014 dated 14.11.2014 have been extended due to inclement weather conditions from time to time;

Whereas the students have been evaluated over the academic session under the Continuous Comprehensive Evaluation (CCE) Scheme but for the final exams of the 2nd term;

Whereas, conduct of examination on the opening of schools will further delay the studies by a month or so;

Therefore, in view of prolonged disruption of schooling in the Kashmir Division and Winter Zone of Jammu Division and likelihood of further delay in commencement of studies in the next classes in case examinations are held, it is hereby ordered that final exams of the 2nd term shall be waived off for the students of Class-I to Class-IX as also Class-XI in all the Government Schools and recognized Private Schools of Kashmir Division and Winter Zone of Jammu Division and the students shall be elevated to the next level with immediate effect.
